Japanese Hemlock—(Tsuga diversifolia)

This dwarf type of Hemlock is very desirable for a low informal edging or hedge. It may be used in the garden to give picturesque effects as a background for flower beds, or to outline or separate beds in the more formal gardens. Japanese Hemlock should be trimmed only lightly. For this use, we have the following sizes:

Upright Japanese Yew—(Taxus cuspidata capitata)

The rich, dark green needles of the Japanese Yew, together with the ease of keeping it clipped low and narrow, make this evergreen one of the finest for planting as a garden border, or as a low hedge anywhere in the yard. The sizes here listed are excellent for planting to develop into low hedges. Evergreen hedges need only one clipping per year.
